CHARLOTTETOWN FOOD TRUCK FESTIVAL ANNOUNCED

A new festival of food, family, and fun -- coming to Charlottetown in May -- has been announced by the Rotary Club of Charlottetown Royalty.

The first annual Charlottetown Food Truck Festival will be happening at the Eastlink Centre May 22 and 23. More than a dozen Food Trucks from PEI and the Maritimes will be featured, along with a large craft fair and makers' market, a rollicking KidZone, and a licensed musical entertainment zone.

In addition, patrons will receive free admission to the ACO Canadian Cornhole Classic, taking place at the Eastlink Centre at the same time. Cornhole is essentially beanbag tossing, and the Canadian Cornhole Classic will feature multiple divisions for a wide range of competitors, including both World Ranking Points events and also open divisions available to the general public.

The Festival is also a fundraiser for Rotary's community support projects. A five-dollar daily admission fee ($10 per family) to the food truck festival, music, and crafters market will be charged, with the proceeds going to charitable projects which Rotary supports on Prince Edward Island.
